

The Friends of the Arlington Public Library present

The Second Annual Arlington Puzzle Festival!

8:30 am-4:30pm

Saturday, November 3rd, 2012

CROSSWORD PUZZLE TOURNAMENT 10:00AM TO 1:30PM
(includes lunch break)

Puzzles provided by Will Shortz, crossword puzzle editor for the New York Times and the puzzle master on NPR's Weekend Edition Sunday.

SUDOKU TOURNAMENT 1:30PM TO 4:30PM

Puzzles provided by Thomas Snyder, three-time World Sudoku Champion and five-time winner of the U.S. Puzzle Championship.

SPEAKERS 8:45AM TO 10:00AM and NOON TO 12:45PM

Matt Gaffney, professional crossword puzzle constructor and author, will speak on the art and science of creating challenging crossword puzzles.

Andy Wenzel, renowned expert on the Post Puzzle Hunt, will talk about the genesis and history of puzzle hunts in both Miami and Washington, D.C.

Arlingtonian Doug Gardner, puzzle inventor, will present on his patented math and logic puzzle, the OCTO puzzle.

Workshops, prizes, games, and puzzles for all ages.

Admission is Free—participants are encouraged to either become members of the Friends of the Arlington Library (FOAL) or make a donation to support the work of FOAL.

Pre-Registration is recommended:

<http://library.arlingtonva.us/puzzlefest/>

On-site registration begins at 8:30am November 3rd.

